WHO:      Senator Tom Cotton represents Arkansas in the U.S. Senate. He serves on the Banking Committee as chair of the Economic Policy Subcommittee, the Intelligence Committee, and the Armed Services Committee as chair of the Subcommittee on Airland. Cotton served in active duty military with the U.S. Army Infantry for five years, including two tours in Iraq and Afghanistan. Before joining the military in the aftermath of the September 11, 2001, terrorist attacks, Cotton completed a clerkship in the U.S. Court of Appeals and worked as a lawyer in a private practice. He earned his undergraduate and law degrees from Harvard University.

About the Kirby Center

The Allan P. Kirby, Jr. Center for Constitutional Studies and Citizenship is an extension of the teaching mission of Hillsdale College to Washington, D.C. Its purpose is to teach the Constitution and the principles that give it meaning. Through the study of original source documents from American history—and of older books that formed the education of America's founders—the Center seeks to inspire students, teachers, citizens, and policymakers to return the Constitution to its central place in the political life of the nation.

About Hillsdale College

Hillsdale College is an independent liberal arts college located in southern Michigan. Founded in 1844, the College has built a national reputation through its classical liberal arts core curriculum and its principled refusal to accept federal or state taxpayer subsidies, even indirectly in the form of student grants or loans. It also conducts an outreach effort promoting civil and religious liberty, including a free monthly speech digest, Imprimis, with a circulation of more than 4 million.
