

Hillsdale College Students Hold 9/11 Never Forget Ceremony

HILLSDALE, Mich. — The Hillsdale College chapter of Young Americans for Freedom created a memorial on September 11 to honor those who died in the 9/11 attacks. The memorial is part of YAF's nationwide 9/11: Never Forget Project.

"This memorial is a way to honor the lives lost on 9/11, but it's also a reminder to us not to take our freedom as Americans for granted," said Victoria Rossmiller, chairman of the Hillsdale YAF chapter. "Freedom doesn't come by accident. We have to fight for it and protect it."

Hillsdale YAF members invited students, faculty, and staff to contribute to the memorial project by placing 2,977 small American flags in the ground around the Hillsdale College Civil War monument between Lane Hall and Kendall Hall. The flags memorialize the 2,977 lives lost on 9/11.

"This is the first year that all current Hillsdale students — except those who are older for their grades — were born after 9/11," said Mark Moyar, William P. Harris Chair of Military History and YAF's faculty adviser. "This memorial will help them understand the magnitude of those attacks and keep alive the memory of those who died. It is also inspiring for those who lived through that day to see that those too young to remember still want to honor the American families who suffered as a result of the 9/11 attacks."

Young Americans for Freedom is a project of Young America's Foundation. YAF chapter members advocate the ideas of individual freedom, a strong national defense, free enterprise, and traditional values through educational activities, conferences, and campus leadership.

For photos, click here.

About Hillsdale College

Hillsdale College is an independent, nonsectarian, Christian liberal arts college located in southern Michigan. Founded in 1844, the College has built a national reputation through its classical liberal arts core curriculum and its principled refusal to accept federal or state taxpayer subsidies, even indirectly in the form of student grants or loans. It also conducts an outreach effort promoting civil and religious liberty, including a free monthly speech digest, Imprimis, with a circulation of more than 6.6 million. For more information, visit hillsdale.edu.